Official Document

Title: Endorsement of SD Diorama Project

Type: INS declaration

Authorised: First Committee, INS

Authorisation Code: TMcC110208

Document follows

1. It is noted that author Sloane Crosley, operating from New York (site of the seminal 2007 INS 'Declaration on Inauthenticity'), has produced a set of dioramas to accompany her text-based project 'I Was Told There'd be Cake'.
2. It is further noted that the text-based project uses the mode of essay-writing, a form much favoured within INS ideology.
3. It is still further noted that, in extending her textual investigations into real-space through her use of dioramas, associate Crosley is engaging in practices of re-enactment, materialisation and mise-en-abîme that are highly compatible with the INS's own practises and pursuits.
4. The INS Sub-Committee for the Maritime therefore commend associate Crosley's endeavours.
